

XM radio should be free to broadcast local traffic and weather. The NAB is only trying to maintain a monopoly to the detriment of the public. XM offers constant information whereas radio stations only broadcast periodically updates. And radio station information is frequently inaccurate here in LA.